A. Soba set Meal and Garden Stroll

All images are for illustrative purposes only.

The Experience

Enjoy a traditional soba set meal featuring freshly handmade noodles prepared every morning, served with tempura, seasonal side dishes, and dessert. Meals are served in a historic building designated as a Registered Tangible Cultural Property. After dining, take a 20-minute stroll through a beautiful Japanese garden with bamboo groves and stone statues. Conveniently located about 10 minutes from the Great Buddha of Kamakura and about 20 minutes from Enoshima, it's easy to include in your sightseeing plans.

Unique Venue Selling Points

An exclusive experience of traditional Japanese beauty. This luxurious course offers the chance to savor handmade soba noodles in a historic building and, on clear days, stroll through a Japanese garden with panoramic views of Mount Fuji, the Hakone mountain range, and Sagami Bay. The tranquil atmosphere of Kamakurayama makes it an attractive location for group events and special dining experiences.
